

METAV-Press Photos:

METAV 2018 confirms ongoing economic boom in metalworking

((Dr. Wilfried Schäfer.jpg))

Dr. Wilfried Schäfer, Executive Director of the METAV-Organiser, VDW (German Machine Tool Builders' Association), Frankfurt am Main

Photo: VDW

((METAV18_MK7947.jpg))

The company Bimatec Soralue, Limburg a. d. Lahn, shows a travelling column milling machine with active vibration reduction, the smallest version of which can machine parts up to 8 metres in length. This enables structural components of cranes, for example, to be processed.

Foto: Messe Düsseldorf/CTillmann

((METAV2018_MK2796.jpg))

The METAV visitor target group includes all branches of industry that process metal, in particular mechanical engineering and plant construction, the automotive and supply industry, aerospace, electrical engineering, energy and medical technology, tool and mold making, as well as metalworking and crafts.

Foto: Messe Düsseldorf/CTillmann

((METAV2018_MT6130.jpg))

The second largest group of exhibitors at METAV are precision tools.

Foto: Messe Düsseldorf/CTillmann

((METAV2018_MK3456.jpg))

The next METAV will be taking place in March 2020 in Düsseldorf.

Foto: Messe Düsseldorf/CTillmann

Printable versions of the photos are available for download at <http://www.metav.de/fotos>