

Pictures for the EMO press release:

Digital fitness regime for machinists

On show at EMO Hannover 2019 – Digitalisation and networking creating new services for tool manufacturers

((04-01-IMT_Christian-Krieg.jpg))

Christian Krieg, LMT Kieninger, Lahr: "Sensors indicate whether the individual cutting elements are extended or retracted. This prevents damage to the components or tools."

Photo: LMT

((04-02-intelligente Werkzeugsysteme.jpg))

Tool users are now looking specifically for digital machining solutions.

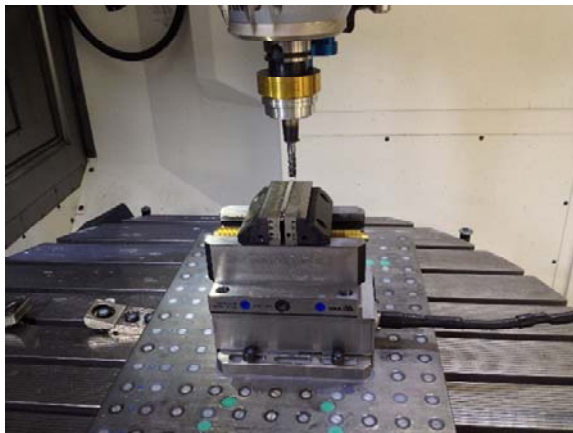

Photo: LMT

((04-03-Frank-Barthelmä-GFE.jpg))

Frank Barthelmä, Managing Director of GFE Gesellschaft für Fertigungstechnik und Entwicklung Schmalkalden: "Networking enables tool manufacturers to provide integrated services."

Photo: GFE

((04-04-GFE-Fräsen.jpg))

Leading precision tool manufacturers are now systematically addressing digitalisation and networking – from data generation in rotating tools through to cloud-based solutions.

Photo: GFE

((04-05-Mapal-Giari Fiorucci.jpg))

Giari Fiorucci, Managing Director of c-Com, Aalen:
"We bring together all the players in the machining sector."

Photo: Mapal

((04-06-GFE-Tagung.jpg))

The 180 or so participants at the Schmalkalden Tool Conference all agreed that AI-based virtual machining is on the advance.

Photo: Presseagentur Fecht

You will find texts and images relating to the EMO Hannover 2019 on the internet at <https://www.emo-hannover.de/de/presse/pressemitteilungen/pressemitteilungen/pressemitteilungen.xhtml>
You can also follow the EMO Hannover using our social media channels

http://twitter.com/EMO_HANNOVER

<https://de.industryarena.com/emo-hannover>

www.linkedin.com/company/emo-hannover

<http://www.youtube.com/metaltradefair>

<http://facebook.com/EMOHannover>